INTER HOUSE ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION

To celebrate Teachers' Day, students in Grades VI to VIII participated in an engaging essay competition titled "Teacher's Day." The purpose was to enhance their writing skills and express gratitude to their beloved teachers. Reflecting on personal experiences, they emphasized the special qualities of their teachers and summarized key points in their essays. This activity played a role in promoting a positive classroom environment and reinforcing the teacher-student bond.

INTER-HOUSE FACE MASK PAINTING COMPETITION

"Art is an expression of internal imagination" – Vincent van Gogh.

In a bid to nurture artistic talents among students, Shanti Niketan Vidyapeeth organized an Inter-House Face Mask Painting Competition, involving students from class I to V. The competition was a vibrant display of creativity and enthusiasm, with students showcasing their artistic skills. They meticulously crafted masks inspired by their favorite characters, exhibiting their artistic flair. The event culminated in a grand exhibition of these handcrafted masks, each reflecting the students' unique interpretations and imaginative expressions. It stood as a testimony to their artistic potential, celebrating creativity at Shanti Niketan Vidyapeeth.

TEACHERS' DAY

The Teachers' Day celebration was a vibrant event emphasizing the vital role of teachers in society. The atmosphere was filled with appreciation as students and staff expressed gratitude through speeches and performances. Personal stories highlighted the profound impact teachers had on their lives, showcasing their dedication and mentorship. The celebration also showcased unity within the school community, emphasizing the collective effort in providing a positive learning environment. Overall, it was a beautiful tribute to teachers, reinforcing their significant influence and fostering stronger teacher-student bonds.

Teaching is the profession that teaches all the other professions.

JANMASHTAMI CELEBRATION

"The uncontrolled mind can act as one's greatest adversary."

Janmashtami, a significant festival in our nation, commemorates the birth of Lord Krishna, a revered symbol of divinity, love, and righteousness, celebrated with profound devotion.

At Shanti Niketan Vidyapeeth, Janmashtami was observed through a special morning assembly brimming with delightful student performances. The atmosphere was filled with reverence and joy as students presented a variety of cultural acts and recited hymns dedicated to Lord Krishna. This event served as a poignant reminder of the timeless teachings and virtues embodied by Lord Krishna, emphasizing the importance of mastering one's mind and embracing righteousness.

GRAND PARENTS DAY

"What children need most are the essentials that grandparents provide in abundance. They give unconditional love, kindness, patience, humor, comfort, and valuable life lessons."

The day commenced with a cheerful welcome song, followed by lively dance performances by our young ones dedicated to their grandparents. A variety of games were organized, and the grandparents enthusiastically participated, enjoying each moment. It was truly heartwarming to witness both the grandparents and children relishing their time spent together.

Hindi Diwas

Hindi Diwas is celebrated annually on September 14th to honor the Hindi language, which holds immense cultural and historical significance in India. This day commemorates the adoption of Hindi in the Devanagari script as one of the official languages of India.

On Hindi Diwas, we celebrate the rich linguistic diversity of our nation and acknowledge the role Hindi plays in promoting unity and a sense of belonging. It is a time to reflect upon the importance of preserving and promoting our native languages, fostering national integration, and cherishing our cultural heritage.

PUPPET SHOW ACTIVITY IN KINDERGARTEN

The puppet show offers a delightful blend of mesmerizing stories and interactive play, carefully crafted to capture the imagination and delight our young audience. Our goal is to provide an engaging experience that sparks creativity, nurtures language skills, and cultivates a deep appreciation for the art of storytelling.

Birthday Celebration Activity

Birthday celebrations in school bring joy and togetherness. Decorations, songs, and treats mark the day, making the birthday child feel special. It's a time for shared smiles, heartfelt wishes, and creating lasting memories within the classroom community.
